

CHAPTER IV

CONCLUSION

East Java is one of many provinces in Indonesia which has a lot of tourist attractions. East Java Government Culture and Tourism Service is Government institution which manage the cultures and tourisms in East Java. It is also to increase income of region by developing and promoting the attractive tourism destination areas in East Java to the International level. The writer did the internship as a marketing staff. The Marketing staff has the duties to develop market analysis, promote the culture and tourism such as constructing culture and Tourism cooperations in domestic and abroad, and collecting data about culture and tourism. The Marketing department has three sections to help the implementation of the duties.

The writer did the internship at East Java Government Culture and Tourism for one month. She could apply skills which she got in English Diploma. She got many experiences during the internship. She got knowledge about skills and socialization which she never got before. She should adapt in different situation with different people who have different characters and ages. The writer could improve her ability in public speaking. She also got knowledge about culture and tourism in East Java. The writer also learned how to be discipline, how to act in front of people, how to keep attitude and how to be a good staff in working place. The writer hopes that all of the things that she has gotten during the internship can be useful for the future.

In East Java Government Culture and Tourism Service English was very useful because English is an international language. English is very needed in there when doing cooperation with foreign parties and to promote East Java in abroad. So, studying in English Diploma was supporting the writer to develop her English skills.

The writer hopes that the experiences that she got during the internship can make her ready to work in real job someday and can motivate her to future career. Therefore, The writer would give a recommendation to her juniors to do the internship in this place.

